

Tamilarasi Bose, B.A., M.A., M.Phil., UGC-NET

Assistant Professor & Certified Soft Skills Trainer

Address: 18/33, Satheya Vani Muthu Street, Redhills,
Chennai – 600052

DOB: 25-10-1985 | Languages: Tamil, English

Tamilarasi Bose is a dedicated academician and Certified Soft Skills Trainer with over 9.2 years of enriching experience in higher education. She holds a Master of Philosophy (M.Phil.) with 82% from the University of Madras (2014), a Master of Arts (M.A.) with 67% from the University of Madras (2013), and a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) with 64% from St. Ethiraj College for Women (2011). She has also qualified the UGC-NET Examination in July 2019, affirming her academic excellence and research aptitude.

Tamilarasi Bose has served as an Assistant Professor across reputed institutions. She commenced her teaching career at Vel Tech (April 2014 to 2015), followed by her tenure at Indira Institute of Engineering and Technology, Pandur (July 2015 to June 2016). She subsequently served at Apollo Engineering College, Chennai (July 2016 to June 2018), and Loyola College Chennai (July 2018 to February 2022). Over the course of her career, she has handled classes for B.E. and MBA students, demonstrating her versatility and commitment to quality education.

She is a Certified Soft Skills Trainer from NIIT, Annanagar, Chennai, and has offered extensive training to corporate professionals, college students, and faculty members in various dimensions of communication and interpersonal development. She served as a two-time Coordinator with the NBA (National Board of Accreditation), reflecting her capabilities in academic administration and quality assurance. Her research thesis is titled "The Aftermath of Thermal Expansion and Global Warming: An Eco-climatic Reading of Kim Stanley Robinson's Select Novels", showcasing her interdisciplinary interest in literature and environmental studies.

She has completed notable academic projects including "Impact of Globalization in Chetan Bhagat's Half Girlfriend" (2015–2017) and "Socio-cultural Effects on Second Language Acquisition: A Study Based on Secondary School Students" (2018–2019). She has actively participated in paper presentations and a National Conference on Communication and IT (approved by ICTACT and AICTE), a UGC-sponsored two-day seminar on Journalism and Mass Communication, a one-day training programme on Human Rights by the National Human Rights Commission, and a workshop on the "Utility of DELNET" organized by the Department of Library and Information Science.

Tamilarasi Bose is known for her smart working approach, target-oriented mindset, strong inter-personal skills, multitasking ability, and effective administration skills. Her areas of professional interest include script writing, editing, and creative writing. On a personal note, she enjoys drawing, reading, verse writing, singing, and gardening. She is married and is a proficient communicator in both Tamil and English. She is deeply passionate about teaching and student development, and is widely recognized for her diligence, empathy, and goal-oriented approach to academic and personal growth.