

Ms. Lekka Sree. P, M.A

Assistant Professor

Mail id:

Phone no:

Lekka Sree P is a dedicated and hardworking postgraduate in English with a strong interest in teaching and academic development. She completed her MA in English from Bhaktavatsalam Memorial College for Women with 70% and her BA in English from DRBCCC Hindu College with 69%. She completed her schooling at Shree Niketan Matriculation Higher Secondary School.

Her objective is to provide clear, structured, and concept-based teaching that helps students understand complex topics easily. She aims to use modern teaching methods, technology, and interactive learning techniques to support students from diverse backgrounds.

She possesses strong skills such as time management, communication, leadership, teamwork, adaptability, and problem-solving. She has also completed several certifications in areas like AI applications, NLP with ChatGPT, AIOps fundamentals, and communication development through organizations like IBM and Great Learning.

Additionally, she has participated in workshops on modern teaching techniques and academic publishing and completed the Naan Mudhalvan program. She also gained professional experience as a Proofreader at Emerald Publishers.

She is proficient in Tamil, English, and Hindi and is committed to continuous learning and contributing effectively to the field of education.