About the Spelling wizards Club

The Spelling Wizards Club, functioning under the Minerva English Association of the English Department (Shift II), provides platform for students to develop strong language and vocabulary skills. The club encourages learners to improve their spelling, pronunciation, and confidence in English through engaging activities and healthy competition. With a focus on word learning, etymology, and effective communication, the Spelling Wizards Club aims to nurture articulate and skilled speakers. It is a space where students celebrate the power of words and grow together as language enthusiasts.

About the Guest

Ms.M.R.Malvika is a PhD scholar in English Language Teaching (ELT) and a certified TESL trainer. Her doctoral research focuses on developing learners' interactional competence, with particular emphasis on training teachers in the pedagogy of interactional competence to enhance students' speaking abilities. Her work broadly explores speaking skills, learner interaction, and classroom communication practices. In addition to her research, she trains students for international English proficiency examinations such as IELTS and TOEFL. She is passionate about creating practical, learner-centered language learning environments that build confidence and real-world communication skills.

About the Event

The workshop titled “Lexical Mastery: Enhancing Spelling through ELT Methodologies” is designed to strengthen students' lexical competence by improving spelling proficiency, vocabulary development, and pronunciation accuracy through systematic English Language Teaching approaches. The programme will introduce participants to effective ELT strategies, including phonics-based instruction, morphological awareness, and interactive spelling-focused activities. It aims to provide a deeper understanding of word structure and usage, thereby enhancing overall communication skills.
